Name: _____

Show-Me Farming Crossword

Word Bank

combine	cotton	grazing	milk	peanut	rice	turkey
conservation	cover	hay	nitrogen	planter	soil health	wheat
corn	dairy	hen	pasture	potassium	soybeans

Across

6. Bananas are a source of this nutrient for people that soybeans use to grow.

8. Cows raised with _____ management are moved around the pasture to allow the grass to grow back.

10. Farmers use _____ crops after fall harvest to keep nutrients in place and improve soil health.

11. A female chicken that lays eggs is called a _____.

14. Products such as milk, cheese, yogurt, and ice cream are known as _____.

15. Farmers focus on _____ to keep their soil in place and water clean.

17. Cows, horses, sheep, and goats live in a field called a _____.

18. This crop is known as maize in other countries and can be used to make tortilla chips.

19. This crop is used to make bread and pasta.

Down

1. This machine is used to put seed into the ground to grow a crop.

2. This describes what farmers focus on to improve their fields, crops, and the environment. (2 words)

Down (continued)

3. This crop is used to make oil, which can be turned into diesel, crayons, paint, and candles on your birthday cake.

4. Grass that is dried and tightly wrapped up for use during winter.

5. This animal is commonly eaten at Thanksgiving dinner and raised throughout Central and Southern Missouri.

7. This Southern Missouri crop is raised by flooding the field with water.

9. This Missouri crop is grown in the Bootheel of the state and used in candy or made into oil.

12. On average, dairy cows produce 6 to 7 gallons of this a day.

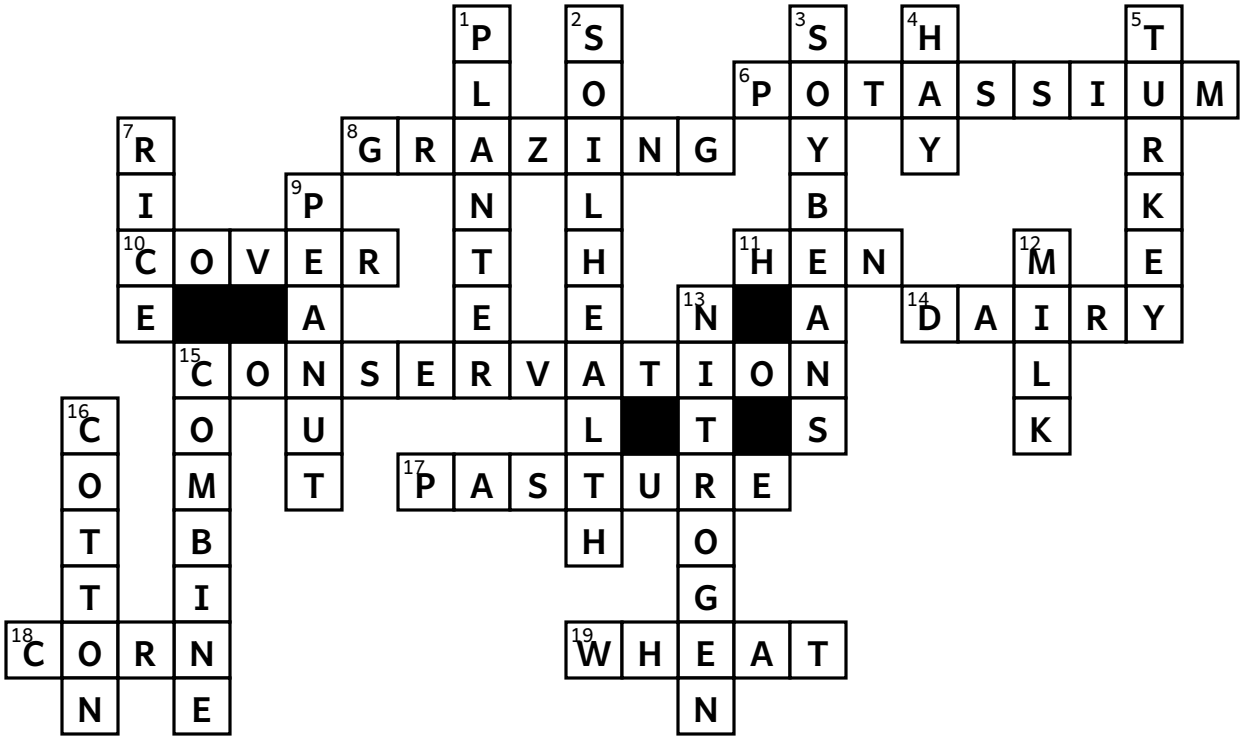

13. Corn uses this nutrient to grow tall and have dark green leaves.

15. Farmers use this piece of equipment to harvest their corn, soybeans, and wheat crops.

16. Clothing is made from this crop grown in the Bootheel area of Missouri.

Answer Key Name: _____

Show-Me Farming Crossword

Word Bank

combine	cotton	grazing	milk	peanut	rice	turkey
conservation	cover	hay	nitrogen	planter	soil health	wheat
corn	dairy	hen	pasture	potassium	soybeans

Across

6. Bananas are a source of this nutrient for people that soybeans use to grow.

8. Cows raised with _____ management are moved around the pasture to allow the grass to grow back.

10. Farmers use _____ crops after fall harvest to keep nutrients in place and improve soil health.

11. A female chicken that lays eggs is called a _____.

14. Products such as milk, cheese, yogurt, and ice cream are known as _____.

15. Farmers focus on _____ to keep their soil in place and water clean.

17. Cows, horses, sheep, and goats live in a field called a _____.

18. This crop is known as maize in other countries and can be used to make tortilla chips.

19. This crop is used to make bread and pasta.

Down

1. This machine is used to put seed into the ground to grow a crop.

2. This describes what farmers focus on to improve their fields, crops, and the environment. (2 words)

Down (continued)

3. This crop is used to make oil, which can be turned into diesel, crayons, paint, and candles on your birthday cake.

4. Grass that is dried and tightly wrapped up for use during winter.

5. This animal is commonly eaten at Thanksgiving dinner and raised throughout Central and Southern Missouri.

7. This Southern Missouri crop is raised by flooding the field with water.

9. This Missouri crop is grown in the Bootheel of the state and used in candy or made into oil.

12. On average, dairy cows produce 6 to 7 gallons of this a day.

13. Corn uses this nutrient to grow tall and have dark green leaves.

15. Farmers use this piece of equipment to harvest their corn, soybeans, and wheat crops.

16. Clothing is made from this crop grown in the Bootheel area of Missouri.